Russian President Vladimir Putin has changed his calculus and has now decided to openly side with the Iranian regime and the leadership of Hamas against the State of Israel.

Israeli MK Gideon Sa’ar

A United Nations watchdog has criticized the organization for passing multiple resolutions [8] this week condemning Israel for various alleged human rights violations, but making no condemnation of Hamas or other groups or nations, at a time when antisemitism is on the rise.

Assembly adopted a major resolution, calling for an “immediate, durable and sustained humanitarian truce leading to a cessation of hostilities”; it was proposed by Jordan and backed by over 45 Member States

An amendment, proposed by Canada and backed by over 35 Member States, including the US, seeking an explicit condemnation of Hamas, did not pass, failing to get two-thirds support

Syria drafted and co-sponsored other resolutions, which passed with a vote of 151 in favor to six against — only Canada, Israel, the Federated States of Micronesia, Nauru, Palau and the U.S. opposed the measure, and 11 members abstained from voting.

"These are Arab lands [specifically Golan)," the representative of Syria said after the vote.

"They will return to their original legitimate owners sooner or later."

For you are a people holy to the LORD your God.
The Lord your God has chosen you out of all the peoples on the face of the earth to be his people, his treasured possession.
The LORD did not set his affection on you and choose you because you were more numerous than other peoples, for you were the fewest of all peoples.
But it was because the LORD loved you and kept the oath he swore to your forefathers

Deuteronomy 7:6-8

And so I will show my greatness and my holiness, and I will make myself known in the sight of many nations.
Then they will know that I am the LORD.

Ezekiel 38:23

When I have brought them back...
I will show myself holy through them in the sight of many nations.
Then they will know that I am the LORD their God,
for though I sent them into exile among the nations,
I will gather them to their own land, not leaving any behind.

Päivi Räsänen

member of the Finnish Parliament since 1995 (re-elected April 2023)

former Minister of the Interior

former chair of the Christian Democrats medical doctor, mother of five and grandmother of six member of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Finland

Wrote pamphlet for her church over 15 years ago, questioning their support for a gay pride event

Authorities concluded NO criminal action

2 years ago, charged with hate speech for the pamphlet & posting a pic of Romans 1:26-27

And Genesis 1:27

Acquitted March 2022

Appeal filed – now appearing in court again (Sept 2023)

The prosecution kicked off the proceedings with arguments against the defendants, focusing on a booklet written by Räsänen nearly two decades ago and stating that the content was "insulting" and violated "sexual rights."

The prosecutor argued that the use of the word "sin" in Räsänen's booklet was "degrading" and that her interpretation of Bible verses was "criminal."

"The point isn't whether it is true or not but that it is insulting," the prosecutor stated, according to ADF International.

"We can limit freedom of expression in the outward expression of religion," the prosecution added. "You can cite the Bible, but it is Räsänen's interpretation and opinion about the Bible verses that are criminal."

Member of Parliament Päivi Räsänen – a 62-year-old medical doctor and grandmother of seven – and Lutheran Bishop Juhana Pohjola were again found not guilty of hate speech by a court of appeals in Helsinki.

Prosecutors may still attempt to take the issue even higher up the system to the Supreme Court of Finland for a third and final decision.
