ISRAEL

Israelis across the country—on Shabbat and the holiday of Simchat Torah—woke up to sirens sounding and Hamas firing rockets at them from Gaza this morning.

It came a day after Israel and the Arab world marked the 50th anniversary of the surprise attack by Egypt and Syria that launched the Yom Kippur War.”

“ Hamas terror commander Mohammed Deif called for an all out attack on Israel on Saturday morning in a message that was posted on social media. He called for widespread attacks to “sweep away the occupation.” Deif claimed that “we have warned the enemy,” before noting that Israel had attacked Muslims and “desecrated al-Aqsa.”

“Our righteous mujahideen, this is your day to make the enemy understand that his time is over. They attacked and desecrated Al-Aqsa, and we had previously warned them,” he said in the video.

He called on Palestinians to attack Israel with whatever weapons they could find: “bring out their guns today, and whoever does not have a gun, let him bring out a knife, a cleaver, or an ax.” He said Palestinians should “carry out your attacks on the settlements with all the means and tools at your disposal.”

“Rahim Safawi, advisor to Iran's Supreme Leader Ali Khamenei, praised the operation and expressed support, saying,

“We congratulate the Palestinian fighters, and stand by them until the liberation of Palestine and Jerusalem.”

“Hezbollah leader Hassan Nasrallah also expressed support for the operation, saying it is “a response to the ongoing crimes of the occupation.”

“This large-scale operation is confirmation of the will of the Palestinians and that resistance is the only option for dealing with Israeli aggression.

The operation is a message to the Arab and Islamic world and to the entire international community, especially to those who seek normalization with Israel,” the Hezbollah statement said.”

“The Taliban has reportedly asked Iran for passage to Israel to help Hamas continue its terror against the Jewish state, according to multiple foreign media reports from October 7.

The Taliban has allegedly asked for passage to ‘conquer Jerusalem’ if Iran, Jordan and Iraq are willing to support their troops.”
