

Deuteronomy 11, 27 Joshua 8

Cursed, cursed – cursed by the God YHW You will die cursed

Cursed you will surely die Cursed by YHW – cursed, cursed, cursed

Ramadan – April 2 – May 1 Passover – April 15-22 Easter – April 17

Ramadan – April 2 – May 1

As mentioned, Ramadan is observed in order to fulfil the fourth pillar of Islam, Sawm. This means it is not permissible for Muslims to eat or drink during daylight hours throughout the Holy month. Whilst this is arguably the biggest part of Ramadan, there are a number of other things that should be abstained from during this time, including:

- Swearing
 - Lying
- Fighting/arguing
 - Sexual activity

Miss a fast (unintentional) – donate funds to pay for one person's meals for a full day Miss a fast (intentional) – donate funds to pay for 60 people's meals for a full day

Passover – April 15-22

Feast of unleavened bread
Passover Seder
Story of Moses, Pharoah & Israelites

Easter – April 17

Good Friday – crucifixion

3 days in the tomb

Resurrection Sunday

"Watch out for false prophets.

They come to you in sheep's clothing,
but inwardly they are ferocious wolves.

By their fruit you will recognize them."

Matthew 7:15-16

Cox noted that one of the most significant changes in American religious culture has been the increasing rate at which Americans can now remain non-religious.

"Today, nearly two-thirds (65%) of Americans who report having no childhood religious affiliation say they still are unaffiliated as adults, rivaling that of established religious traditions," he wrote.

In 2014, only 53% of Americans raised without a formal religious tradition retained their secular identity as adults. In 2007, that number was 46%.

"One explanation for the rise in retention rates among unaffiliated Americans may be that an increasing number of Americans are being raised in nonreligious households and holding onto those commitments into adulthood," Cox said.

Anyone who lives on milk, being still an infant, is not acquainted with the teaching about righteousness. But solid food is for the mature, who by constant use have trained themselves to distinguish good from evil.

Hebrews 5:11-14